Artist: Paul Sloan The artist's award-winning prints are thought-provoking and have been sold nationally. Paul's art work is appreciated because it reminds the viewer of something in their lives. Are these two married, lovers or acquaintances? This particular setting is in San Francisco with the Palace of Fine Arts in the background. The title refers to the ghost of the Creation of Adam from the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel and is intended as a tribute to Michelangelo. As the viewer gazes into the scene more closely, he can see how there are many things being depicted. Paul Sloan definitely leaves the subjects of his many limited edition prints to the viewer's imagination. All prints are numbered and come with a certificate of authenticity. FRAMED 26" X 32"
